Excerpt: . . . 11 MEDICARE CHOICE Medicare Choice (M C) plans are finding it difficult to adjust to the BBA changes while maintaining the extra services they have provided to beneficiaries in the past. This is especially true for prescription drug coverage that is not available in the Medicare fee-for-service program and which many M C plans offer, but for which they do not receive specific payment from Medicare. Many M C plans were able to offer drug coverage and other extras because of excessive payments that were made to them before the BBA. However, since the BBA was enacted, costs of the extra benefits provided under many M C plans - particularly prescription drugs that are not offered in the Medi-care fee-for-service program - have increased much faster than spending for services in the Medicare fee-for-service program. Our success in holding down fee-for-service costs is due in part to BBA provisions and our fraud, waste, and abuse efforts, as well as other factors. Because payments to M C plans do not account for the costs of services which are not covered in the Medicare fee-for-service program, plans have significantly reduced the scope of their prescription drug coverage. For exam-ple, in the last two years, the proportion of plans that limit drug coverage to 500 or less has increased by 50 percent. In 2000, about 75 percent of plans limit drug coverage to 1, 000 or less. Lack of payment to support drug coverage that is not available in fee-for-service Medicare is a primary reason that some M C plans are again announcing that they will leave or reduce participation in the program, particularly those with...
