TEEWAHPANYEE THE BOY, TWO FEATHERS THE MAN: THE NEW LIFE SERIES BOOK 7 (PAPERBACK)

Hisgivenstories Lib Publications, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Teewahpanyee was thirteen when he left for a three day journey that would prove his survival skills. Be sure you find shelter. That was his father s advice. If you can, bring back a large deer. It will bring you honor. His mother had taken special care to oil his skin and groom his jet black hair. He proudly wore his spirit pouch that she had made. He walked his horse through the village toward the woods. The people applauded and called his name, encouraging him. He didn t know that it was the last time he would ever see them alive. The first night he slept beside the small stream that brought water to his village. The first deer he saw was smaller than he had hoped. He shot his arrow and missed as it leapt away. That night the sky filled with storm clouds. The rain came making it difficult to start a campfire. The wet wood produced more smoke than flames. He had forgotten his father s advice. As he sat near his fire, loudly pronouncing his disappointment and apologizing to the spirits he believed in, a large Spirit Lion approached his fire and sat down across from him as a Chief might at a council meeting. Teewahpanyee, you must return to your village. You are needed there. Do not fear. I will be with you. It moved away flicking its tail, sending a small bit of golden hair floating to snag on a rock near him. He struggled to keep warm until early light. Upon rising, he was able to remembered the entire scene clearly, the huge lion and its strange message. He picked up the soft hair left..
