Margaret Vincent Foster came into the world with two things: money and a rebellious streak. She can't find the love of her life, so she fills the void by dating characters you would normally only find in the drunk tank on a full moon. She's the girl your parents never thought to warn you about. She will steal your heart, and maybe a little bit of your soul. Maggie's only goal is to not end up like her socialite parents and their friends. They want her to settle down and be comfortable, and all Maggie can think about is a boy in a Star Wars costume she met half a lifetime ago. Her prized velvet Elvis and celebrity hair clippings in tow, she drags everyone along as she carves her own path in the world. When others are going down, Maggie is going up. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
