The human race has been naturally aware, it has been gifted with unique capabilities of observing and analysing, it has been imparted with distinct qualities like compassion and generosity and above all it has got embedded with itself the universes most powerful instrument i. e. a human brain. There are other species also which has some colours of the above mentioned things, but the race of humanity is equipped with the highest version of the worlds only operating system. It has been a phenomenal collective journey but it shall always be remembered by a human individual that not every software upgrade is better than the previous one. The events of the world has fastened themselves like never before but the essence somehow of being a living specie and that too of being a Homo Sapiens surprisingly remains the same. Everything that has a beginning is also attached with its end and no human individual or civilisation is left untouched with the rule of this natural alignment. The Human system has made tremendous advancements since its existence and it will get...
