E2 2010b OCLC Number: (OCoLC)656424644 Subject: Unemployment -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 today. But - which is the equivalent of the dog ate my economy, as an excuse. But in your testimony you really tend to dismiss that because you point out there are two ways we collect jobs numbers - you col-lect jobs numbers - for our country. One, of course, is the household survey where you call people and ask them. Obviously, if theyre on vacation or home sick, or prevented from working by bad weather, they are not counted as unemployed; they are just not working that day. And then the other way that you collect information through the employment survey, what you said in your testimony as well, was basically the only way they would be counted as unemployed is if they received not a dime during the month of their pay period, the bi-weekly pay period, or weekly pay period, they would literally have to be out of work for their whole pay period to be counted as unemployed during that period. Is that correct Commissioner Hall. Thats correct. Representative Brady. So would you say that the snow storms distorted the jobs numbers you are presenting today Commissioner Hall. I would say it is really hard to tell. I would say we wont know - we will have a much better idea, I would say, by looking at next months numbers to sort of see. Be-cause whatever happened with the snow storms this month will be gone by next month, so we will see a bounce-back, if there was an effect. But there...
