Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Relations of Anti-Slavery to Religion The harvest being greater and the laborers fewer than they had expected, those who were in the field must work with double diligence. And they did so work. But they soon found that not only indifference, hut opposition, was to be encountered from the clergy. Having undertaken to call the nation to repentance for a great sin, and to immediate abandonment of it. they of course preached this doctrine on Sunday as well as on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday; and presently they were stigmatized by the clergy as violators of the Sabbath. Making large use, as their previous culture and habits of thought dictated, of the denunciations of prophets, apostles, and evangelists against oppression, and finding these injunctions neutralized, sometimes directly and sometimes indirectly, by men who called themselves ministers of the gospel, they saw the fitness, and did not shrink from the painful duty, of quoting what was said by the same authorities against corrupt priests, false prophets, blind guides, dumb dogs that bark not. and hireling shepherds; and for this the corrupters of religion called them recilers of religion. Finally, when, having proved by indisputable argument and overwhelming evidence that slavery is the sum of all villainies. they were met by the assertion that slavery is authorized by the Bible. they replied, If it be so, so much the worse for the Bible, - for this their clerical opponents declared them infidels. Though by no means the first, or the only instance, the Anti-Slavery Society is yet a signal and noteworthy instance of an evil reputation not only coexisting with, but growing out of, a good character. The...
