Excerpt from Catalogue of an Exhibition of Etchings by Bracquemond and Buhot: February 25th to March 25th, 1908 Buhot was always the thorough gentle man. He was almost Quixotic in this respect; but the refinement of his nature was very genuine and he was a highly educated and intellectual man. After his death in 1896 his etched work had the signal honor of being publicly exhibited for six months at the Luxembourg Gallery, Paris; and the distinguished Curator, Monsieur Benedite, published a laudatory and sympathetic article on him in a Paris magazine. We have published this article, translated into English by Buhot's widow who is an English woman-in a booklet, which we shall be glad to send by mail to any correspondent.
