Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book of short stories, you will learn about the lives of people living in Canada s Ottawa Valley as seen through the eyes of the author, Lyle Dillabough. Lyle has lived his life not just as an observer but as one who questions the present in seeking gems from the past. His love of local Canadian history and folk lore comes through in his many topics and songs. Local, in Lyle s mind means anywhere his interests take him. As a prolific songwriter, Lyle has a clear love of performing and has a real passion for radio. He has toured most of Canada, played in dozens of studios and performed before hundreds of live audiences. With his guitar in hand he is a true home grown showman. In this book, the lyrics of some of his favorite songs will resonate with you. In all his stories, Lyle finds a charming way to look at the past and blend in his hopes for the future. You will find some quirky stories, personal introspective and simple entertainment. As an award recipient of the Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Medal, Lyle was commended for his community contributions and his numerous chartable efforts and his skill of capturing a story. Tagged with the nickname The Valley Troubadour you will see why Lyle has been able to incorporate his inquisitive nature into his writings, be they his short stories, his songs or his poems.
