Rough Ride Guide Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. UK Breaks with Bikes is a mountain biking guidebook to the best riding in the UK s holiday destinations, designed for planning a cycling break or identifying routes near to popular holiday destinations. From classic x-country to family friendly routes, whether you are planning a cycling holiday, or just happen to be on holiday in the UK, this book is a must have for any cyclist. The book uses Ordnance Survey mapping and contains over 100 rides including man made trails, shortcuts and extensions, plus suggested road trip breaks and local tourist attractions for all the family to ensure that a break with a bike is as well informed as possible. Technical information such as directions, route profiles, and GPS coordinates are balanced with local information to help get the most out of a cycling break. It has a unique design, includes inspirational photos and contains over 250 water resistant pages in a ring binder folder - enabling you to carry just the route you need on the ride. This is the 7th guidebook in this format from Max Darkins, published by Rough Ride Guide which means that the author is well on his way to achieving his mission of getting you out riding the best trails in the UK without any fuss . The combination of waterproof, removable pages and Ordnance Survey mapping has proved to be very popular.
