Ballantine. 1 Paperback(s), 2012. soft. Book Condition: New. In this gripping historical thriller, Pulitzer Prizewinning journalist Timothy O'Brien wonders whether the plot to assassinate President Lincoln was wider and more sinister than we ever imagined. As America mourns the death of its leader in the spring of 1865, Washington, D.C., police detective Temple McFadden makes a startling discovery: strapped to the body of a dead man at the B&O Railroad station are two diaries/documents that together reveal the true depth of the Lincoln conspiracy. In Temple's quest to bring the conspirators to justice he crosses paths with Lincoln's secretary of war, Edwin Stanton; legendary Scottish spymaster Allan Pinkerton; abolitionist Sojourner Truth; and photographer Alexander Gardner. "A notable fiction debut with an appealing detective hero and plenty of action. It gets off to a fast start and never stops."Library Journal 359.
