By John Holland

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Sounds of Wonder invites the reader to stay a while at Drumrowan Wildlife Park in the magnificent Scottish Highlands. Under the dynamic leadership of Lord and Lady Cameron, the staff at Drumrowan work together as a good team but there always seems to be a drama ready to unfold. Set near a sleepy village, Sounds of Wonder is an uplifting tale of epic adventure, misadventure, deeds of derring-do, genuine care for the welfare of others, passion for wildlife and for people, and romance. It builds to a moving climax which touches on the border between fantasy and possibility. *** Burns had swollen to three times their normal girth. Sparkling foam plummeted downward, as bright as white, wild stallions, raging wild stallions carried on turbulent currents; dark, peaty, ochreous.
